

Alma Festival in the Clouds 2019 Artist Application

Celebrate mountain fun and creativity at Alma's 22nd annual Festival in the Clouds, July 19th, 20th, & 21st. Alma is located south of Breckenridge at an altitude of 10,578 feet. Funds raised benefit cultural, historic, recreation & community projects sponsored by the Alma Foundation. Original art and live music are key to our event. To be considered for this festival, items to be sold must be hand made by you. No pre purchased or mass market materials. Nonprofits must provide a service for the Alma community, be certified 501C3 at time of application and will pay full price.

Booth fees are $125 per 10' x 10' outdoor art space, $300 for 10' x 15' food booths. (Receive $10.00 discount for preregistration for the following year, if paid in full the by the last day of the festival) A tax deductible donation is requested from each participant for door prizes. Artists provide all display materials and are asked not to leave anything of value overnight. We are not responsible for theft or damage. Fees are non-refundable after July 1st. BE PREPARED FOR EXTREMELY STRONG WINDS, RAIN, SNOW, HAIL, LOTS of DOGS, & RUGGED TERRAIN!

If you're new to our festival, please send three representative artwork photos with your application. Artists are to be on-site and demonstrations are encouraged. You will be notified of acceptance. APPLICATIONS FOR NEW VENDORS SHOULD BE RECEIVED BY JULY 1st. Please do not email applications. Applications must be mailed with Full payment to be considered. Late applications will be considered until all spaces are filled.

Our festival is held adjacent to Alma Town Hall, just East of Highway 9, Buckskin Gulch Rd. Booth hours are optional on Friday, 10 am - 6 pm Saturday, 10 am - 6 pm Sunday. NO EARLY TEARDOWNS as it greatly endangers visitors to the festival. Because of our limited space we are asking that you respect the area you are given as overage greatly impacts others.

Please note that the Festival in the Clouds is a zero waste event. Please help us to be in compliance.
